STILL EASING OFF

Trading Is Light on Both Ends of Lists of Stocks and Bonds.

Threats reaching General Function that Villa has launched a campaign of guerilla warfare against the Arizons border were communicated to the War Department today. As a precautionary measure Funsion said he had sent a machine gun troop and four troops of American Graphophone Company stocks continued to ease off at today's session of the Washington Stock Ex-change. Trading was light in both the cavalry to Dougias, Ariz., where the first attack is threatened, and will leave Nogales for Douglas today to take per sonal charge of the situation. Aat the same time, Funsion reported, General Obregon is awaiting permission to ship 5,000 men from Nogales to Agua Prieta, 5,000 men from Nogales to Agua Prieta, opposite Dougias, to drive Villa troops from the border.

The situation at Dougias, the most acute the United States has faced on the border for weeks, is due to the activity of General Rodriguez. Villa's chief lieutenant, who captured Yzabel, forty miles south of Agua Prieta, yesterday, and is now marching against either Cananea or Agua Prieta, though Funston has been unable to learn which.

Peaches and Asparagus Thrown on City Dump

Under the direction of the United States Murshal's office, 1,351 cases of canned peaches, asparagus, and other fruits and vegetables are being defruits and vegetables are being de-stroyed at the city dump today. The destruction of the goods resulted from an order of Justice Siddons, before whom the pure food suthorities pre-sented 2.2% cases of the goods, shipped to Washington from California by way of Galveston, where they were in the flood and became decomnosed. Govern-ment inspectors found 23 cases out of the total that were not affected by the waters of the flood. The goods were shipped by the California Fruit Can-ners' Association to Eastern jobbers.

WASHINGTON'S WORDS USED IN RECRUITING

Addresses by Greatest American Quoted in Britain to Get Men

LONDON. Nov. 7 (by mail.)-Words used by George Washington to aftr American patriotism during the days of England today to awaken the men who remain at home. Recruiting posters framed under the new administration of Lord Perby England's chief recruiting agent, thus "It is not sufficient for a man to be a maniferent for a man to be a maniferent for a maniferent for a manifer to scause. Every person should be active in some department or other, without payin, too much attention to private in terest. terest. * Our conflict is not likely to cease so soon as every good man would wish. The measure of inquity is not yet filled; and unless we can return a little more to first principles, and act a little more on natriotic grounds. I do not know when it will or what may be the issue of the contest."

The comment of the Derby administration under this statement of Washington's is: incton's is:
"The answer was the United States of America."

Preach Sermon For Dog That Gets Fine Funeral

LOUISVILLE. Dec. I.—In an especially made casket, adorned with flowers, the tribute of men who had known his spendid canine qualities, "Buster Brown," a thoroughbred coille, owned by A. J. Spanyer, a druggist, was buried in the rear yard where he had played as a puppy three years ago.

Bernard Higgins, one of the men who fancied the dog, preached a funeral sermon. The animal was injured in an automobile accident three months ago and never recovered. It seemed a few weeks ago that the dog was nearly well, but he suffered a relapse.

Dies on Eve of Deer Hunt as Brother Did

HUNTINGDON, Pa., Dec. 1.—Binary Clay Wallace, sixty-six, a hotel man, is dead from a malignant growth in the stomach. Six weeks age he was taken to Blair Memorial Hospital for an operation. At that time he besught the physicians in charge to be sure and get him fixed up before the deer season came, on December 1.

He died the day before the season began, as did his brother, Blair Wallace, fifteen years ago, while preparing to follow the deer's trail next day.
